ing the wretched weather of the last few days and there were more than 3,000 per-sons present. Most conspicuous of all were ex-Speaker Joseph Cannon, who came as a guest of Congressman Weeks, and Gen. Nelson A. Miles, always a familiar figure at

The pacing section of the Futurity also went to McDonald, this time wih Miss De Forest, a daughter of De Forest. This race was also won in straight heats in fairly fast time. The Futurity for foals of 1909 went to Princess Todd, a daughter of Kentucky Todd, in two heats. Another get of Peter the Great won a race, Peter Red coming from behind in the second heat of the 2:18 trot and winning three heats in succession. Geers drove a heady race this time.

In a light breeze from north to northwes en yachts in three classes sailed an inter esting race yesterday in the special autumn Club. The largest classes to start were the New York Yacht Club's 30 footers and the Q class of sloops. They sailed around the 15% mile course, which took them around then to Long Neck Point and to the finish This gave them a beat, a reach and a run. The committee boat was the Silver Heels, owned by Howard C. Smith.

J. Pierpont Morgan Jr's Phryne, Ralph N. Ellis's Caprice and S. C. Hunter's Juanita were the starters in the 30 foot class. They got away together on the signal at 3 P. M.,

A second visit to Garden City vesterday by Harold H. Hilton, Great Britain's champion amateur golfer, resuited less favorably to the redoubtable foreigner, who was beaten in a four ball match by Walter J. Travis. As on Wednesday, Hilton made his morning round with Philip Samson, whom he had no difficulty in defeating even after allowing him half a stroke a hole. Later Hilton and Samson teamed up against Travis and J. M. Rhett.

Hilton started unsteadily, underplaying his approach out of the rough to the trap at the first and-falling in the pit guarding the third green on another underplayed mashle. This enabled the home pair to become 2 up. Hilton played sound golf from there on, but even so it availed nothing, for Travis was invincible. Andrews earned his place by two well played rounds, defeating B. Stockton, Princeton, in the morning and H. Weatherby, Ardsiey, in the semi-finals.

ing R. Stockton, Princeton, in the morning and H. Weatherby, Ardsiey, in the semi-finals.

Farrington had a close call in his semi-final round against E. H. English of New Haven and only won out on the last green. Farrington led by 3 up at the turn, but was all even at the sixteenth, and a twenty foot put for a win at the seventeenth was all that gave him the match, for the last hole was halved.

F. H. Bailey, Brae Burn, will meet J. S. Farrand, Jr., Detroit, in the second division final. The former won his berth at the twentieth hole after a fine match with W. M. Payne, Westward Ho.

Reynolds weakened in the sixth round, as the Brooklyn boy shot out his left repeatedly to the nose and right to the stomach. In the seventh Reynolds put in a good left to the Jaw and followed it up with a right to the same place. McDonough just shook his head and forced the fighting until the end of the round.

The eighth and ninth rounds were about even. In the final session McDonough tried to end matters. He rushed at the Philadelphia boy and landed a left hook to the jaw. Reynolds came back and was willing to mix it until the bell sounded ending the contest.

Harry Stone and Willie Howard fought at catch weights ground the lightweight limit. Stone opened the first round by placing a left to the side of the neck. Howard then jabbed the atomach with his left and Harry came back with a right swing to the jaw as the gong sounded.

Stone rushed at the opening of the second round and landed his left to the jaw. Howard came back with a right to the ribs. Stone then forced him to the ropes, driving in a few heavy body punches. Stone had the round by a big margin.

Howard made things lively in the third by placing a right to the jaw. He then crossed with his left and Stone clinched. As Stone came close again he missed a left to the jaw and Howard slipped to one knee. Howard had the round.

In the fourth round matters were even. The fifth opened with Stone forcing Howard to the ropes, landing right and left swings to the jaw and head. Howard with a left to jaw made Stone cover up. Stone then nearly had Howard down with more stiff blows to the jaw. Howard was wild near the end of the round, while Stone heaving a slight sdvantage. Howard tried hard to land a right to the stomach, but the East Side boy was on the move.

In the ninth round both went at each other flercely, Howard landing several hard smashes to the jaw, but he weakened near the end from Harry's terrific smashes, which went most

ONE RACE AT DONGAN HILLS Dick Mason Wins Chamber of Commerce Purse on Opening Day.

Owing to the continued rainfall it necessary to declare off most of the events which were scheduled for the light harness which should have opened at Dongan Hills, Staten Island, last day. The 2.15 pacers who raced for the Chamber of Commerce $1,000 purse opened the programme yesterday, and to the uninitiated the track looked to be in perfect shape, but the time which the sidewheelers made told the story and those who drove over the course said that it was dead.

over the course said that it was dead.

Foote Prince was the favorite and he won the first heat with apparent ease in 2:16. He was nowhere in the next heat, however, and Dick Mason, a black gelding by Dr. Mason, claimed the heat with Thomas G. Hinds's Borelli in second place. Complications arose in the third heat and everybody seemed to be accusing everybody else of fouling. S. S. Post got there first and he claimed that Mr. Hinds had driven into his sulky on the turn. Mr. Hinds acknowledged the fault, but said that it was not intentional as he had been crowded by Smith. The judges finally placed Borelli, who had finished first, in seventh place and gave Idlewood first position. Dick Mason won the next heat and the final as well, although every one believed that Mr. Hinds would win the final heat. He stole the pole and came up on the inside with a burst with the second to the spectators. aithough every one believed that Mr. Hinds would win the final heat. He stole the pole and came up on the inside with a burst of speed which looked to the spectators like a win. The judges decided in favor of the black son of Dr. Mason, however, and Borelli got fourth money position.

Lee Hammond furnished plenty of thrills with Baldwin's Red Devil and made two ascents, one for speed and one for altitude. The Red Devil is indigenous to Staten Island, for it first saw the light of day not far from the spot where Mr. Hammond made his flight yesterday.

The horse show will open to-day with the combination class, to be followed by exhibitions of tandems, saddle horses, light and heavy weight and hunters qualified and green. There will also be an eshibition of women's jumpers with women up. The racing will start at 12:30 and will bring out 2:24 trotters for the Staten Island $1.000 purse and the free for all pacers who will compete for the Lumberman's $1.000 purse and the free for all pacers who ward, Borough of Queens, known as Springfield Gardens, Springfield Gardens West and Highwiew Park. THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

ALBANY APARTMENTS ON BROADWAY IN NEW HANDS.

New Syndicate Buys Lease Held by John L. Murray-Twenty Houses Near Pennsylvania Station Leased-Tract in Lakewood Bought by Developers.

Yesterday was virtually a holiday for the real estate market. Many brokers were out of town, to be away until Tues-It was learned yesterday that arrange ments have been made by a syndicate in which Samuel A. Cunningham, presi dent of the Bankers Safe Deposit Company, isinterested, to take over the lease held by John L. Murray, the restaurateur. THE CAMPOLYN on the block front on the west side of Broadway from Fifty-first to Fifty-second street, covered by the Albany apart-

Mr. Murray leased the property last December for twenty-one years, with several renewals. He agreed to pay $65,000 a year net for the first term, with renewals based on a 5 per cent. appraisal to be made at the end of each period.

On what terms the Cunningham syndicate takes the property is not known Mr. Cunningham is credited with saying that the deal had not been definitely closed, as there are several details yet to be settled. The property is diagonally opposite the Winter Garden, formerly the American Horse Exchange, which was leased last year by Jacob Shubert from William K. Vanderbilt for twenty-one years at a rental between $50,000 and $60,000 a year. The Albany is five stories high and covers a little more than eight ful sized lots fronting 201.10 feet on Broadway, 108.2 feet on Fifty-first street and 103 feet on Fifty-second street. It is owned by the estate of John J. Emery. which is controlled by the Girard Trust Company of Philadelphia. The founder of the estate bought the property ten years ago for about $500,000. The house was built about thirty year ago and was classed then among the best apartment houses in New York. At the northwest corner of Broadway and Fiftysecond street is the Hotel Lincoln and at Broadway and Fifty-third street is the Pocantico, both of which were erected about the same time as was the Albany. It was the intention of Mr. Murray to remodel the lower part of the structure. The stores on the street floor were to be made over and the first floor was to be converted into stores and offices. The rest of the structure was to be continued as it was.

a partner of Mr. Bache in the banking firm of Jules S. Bache & Co., have leased their extensive holdings at the west end of the block bounded by Ninth and Tenth ave-nues. Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets, to Frederick S. Justice, a real estate man with offices in Forty-second street. The lease is for a term of years, at an aggregate rental of $100,000. The lease covers twenty buildings, fronting on Tenth avenue, Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets.

The property comprises almost all the property to the west of the French Hospital. On Thirty-third street it is known as 449, 451 and 455 to 461, on Thirty-fourth street 460 to 470, 474 and 478, and on Tenth avenue 406 to 416, which takes in the entire block front.

Messrs. Bache and Wollman have been accumulating the property for some years and the announcement of the lease causes and the announcement of the lease causes no little surprise. It was thought the plot was being gathered for some definite purpose, to be financed by Bache & Co. The opinion is expressed that Mr. Justice has been given a lease with a cancellation cause, which means that his lease is good until Messrs. Bache and Wollman are ready to put their plans into operation. In other words, according to brokers, Mr. Justice will take the care of the property off the owners hands, for which he will get all the rent above a certain amount for his trouble. These were the inducements offered by the owners to a certain broker in this city not long ago, and for this rea-
